4 MEN THOT LOST ABOARD SUNKEN 'SUB'

Disaster in Chinese Sea Blow to British; Submarine Was New One

35 ARE RESCUED

Mistaken Signals Thot
Crash Cause

BULLETIN

LONDON, June 10.—From their tomb in the submarine Poseidon 120 feet down in the water off the coast of China, eight British seamen signalled tonight to rescuers that they were still alive.

LONDON, June 10.—Four of the eighteen men believed lost when British submarine Poseidon sank after a collision with the Chinese merchant vessel Yuta off the coast of China were rescued today, it was stated in an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Hongkong.

The rescues brought the total number of survivors to 35. The other additional rescued men were found some hours after the collision occurred. Five officers and 28 men who jumped clear after the crash were rescued immediately, but two of this number died later from the injuries.

The submarine was located this morning, lying 120 feet below the surface at a point approximately 1 miles north of Weihaiwei, and important naval and coaling stations of the northeast coast of China.

BUBBLES-AD HUNT

Bubbles seen rising from the sunk submarine guided rescuers to its resting place, and from the submarine parent ship, midway and other ships of the British fleet began efforts to rescue the men.

The majority of the mission, then were believed trapped in single compartment of the submarine.

Most of the survivors were rescued by the Yuta, but several reached the surface in safety by means of the submarine's escape apparatus more than an hour after a collision.

The search continued, but 1 little was held out that any of the survivors were still alive. The submarine Hermes, Suffolk, Berwick and Cumberland were standing by to participate in the rescue work.

The Poseidon, a vessel of 1,475 tons and launched less than two years ago, carried a total complement of 51 officers and men. The submarine occurred while the submarine was engaged in naval manoeuvres off the Shantung coast.

IS SERIOUS BLOW

The disaster was a serious blow to the British navy both in loss of life and the loss of the Poseidon, which was the last word in submarine construction. King George sent messages of sympathy to the families of the dead and the admiralty ordered a complete investigation of the crash.

Dispatches received here from Hongkong failed to state the exact cause of the accident. A misunderstanding of signals, however, was believed responsible.

The Poseidon was rammed just west of the coasting tower. The collision, according to an exchange Telegraph dispatch, occurred in a dark fog just after the submer-sion of the Shantung peninsula.

LOSES SEPARATION SUIT, KILLS HUBBY

FREMONT, Ill., June 10.—A few minutes after she lost a suit for separate maintenance, Mrs. Vera Witte, 26, shot to death her husband, William Witte, 55, almost in front of the courthouse door.

The couple left the courtroom together apparently on good terms but Mrs. Witte entered her car, procured a gun and shot Witte three times. Then she handed her gun to the sheriff and said she was ready to go to jail.

Mrs. Witte several years ago shot and wounded her first husband, Ralph Amoth, at Minneapolis.

SOLUTION OF MURDER SEEN

Dayton Police Believe Arrest of Ax-wielder Is Near; Second To Die.

RICHMOND, Ind., June 10.
—A negro giving his name as Peter W. Keyes, 44, of Philadelphia, was arrested here today as a possible suspect in the hideous hatchet murder in Dayton, O., of Thomas Penge, 49, yesterday.

Alleged blood stains on his shirt led local police to believe the man may have been implicated in the assault.

DAYTON, O., June 10.—The arrest of two men, one white and the other a negro, was expected here today when authorities intimated their belief that a solution of the gruesome hatchet-slaying of Thomas Penge, 49, early yesterday, was near.

While authorities scoured the city and its environs for the two men, Mrs. Margaret Bengel, 46, wife of the slain man, lay in Mission Hospital dying from wounds inflicted by the maniacal assailant, who also attacked Laura Bengel, the pretty 19-year old daughter of the couple.

Laura Bengel was hacked severely about the head by the mysterious hatchet wielder, but she was expected to recover.

Although working covertly on the solution of the crime—one of the most hideous in the history of Dayton—Sheriff Fred Wolf stated today he had learned that a dark-complexioned white man was seen near the tiny three-room Bengel cottage in Residence Park shortly before the slaying.

GAS COMPANY VALUE IS SET

Fight of Number of Ohio Cities Ended With Supreme Court Ruling.

COLUMBUS, O., June 10.—Valuation of properties of the Logan Gas Company as finally fixed at $11,687,064 by the Ohio Public Utilities Commission in a recent hearing, today was ordered affirmed in a decision by the Ohio Supreme Court.

Fixation of the valuation brought to an end a six-year conflict between the gas company and several Ohio communities it served including Athens, Elyria and Bucyrus who were principal complainants against an increase in rates which the company proposed in March, 1925.

The natural gas rate boost went into effect June 7, 1925, subject to investigation by the Ohio Public Utilities Commission. The latter pursued its investigation for more than three years.

Meanwhile, 32 of the 58 communities which had joined in protesting an increase, reached an agreement and enacted city ordinances providing rates which in effect settled their differences with the gas company.

In November, 1928, the Utilities Commission fixed valuation of gas properties serving remaining communities at $10,769,077, as of Dec. 31, 1924.

The Logan Gas Company filed protest against these appraised figures. Upon further hearing, valuation was set by the commission at $10,848,890. The gas interests again asked rehearing. Failing to get it in the 60 days period allowed for such requests the gas company took the matter to the supreme court which passed on the case and returned it to the commission.

TWO DAYS ARE REMAINING TO FILE PETITIONS

Political Parties in This City Very Quiet Prior To Dead-Line

THREE FOR MAYOR

Treasurer's Fight Promis- es Much Action

The political frontier, with only two days left for filing applications of candidacy, is exceedingly quiet in this city. To date, Harry E. Weill, clerk of the board of elections, has received only three declarations of candidacy for occupancy of the mayor's office.

George M. Fitzpatrick, former mayor, and William Cady, have filed their papers for the Democratic nomination, and Mayor B.
T. Hedges will go after his third term, on the Republican ticket.

No opposition is expected for the mayor at the primaries.

Miss Lillian Young has filed her papers for nomination for the city auditor's position on the Democratic ticket and as yet no opposition has been named on either ticket.

Paul E. Adkins, city solicitor, has also filed his papers for re-nomination, and no opposition has been announced.

CONTEST IS SEEN

A real contest for the nomination for city treasurer is in the offing with several persons have announced themselves for the office. Paul D. Helwage, incumbent, will not be a candidate.

Those who have intimated their intention to run are George E.
Hammel, Charles Fellers, William Howard and Lawrence Johnson.

No one has announced himself on the G. O. P. ticket.

All present councilmen, with the exception of Julius Helwage, have filed their papers for re-nomination. Mr. Helwage has obtained necessary papers from the clerk of the board of elections but has not yet returned them. According to present reports he is the only councilman who will have opposition, although others are expected to come into the field before the deadline has arrived at 6:30 p. m.
Friday.

John C. Goeller, Democrat, has filed his papers for president of council, C. O. Leist Democrat for councilman from the first ward; Clark C. Will, Republican for councilman from third ward; Tull M.
Barnes, Democrat for councilman from fourth ward; E. S. Neuding Democrat, Mack Parrett Jr., Republican and W. F. Baker, Democrat for councilmen at large.

Ward W. Robinson has announced his candidacy for second ward councilman to oppose Mr. Hel-wage.

Citizens who contemplate running for office must have at least five names on their petitions.

Candidates for township trustee, township clerk, justice of the peace and constable have until Sept. 4 to file their petitions. This is 60 days before the date of election, Nov. 3, as provided by law.

Those who contemplate running for board of education must file their petitions on or before Sept.
4, at 6:30 p. m.

ADDITION TO CITY HOSPITAL MADE

With the completion of the two new additions to the Lancaster Municipal hospital, which were started last July, the Fairfield co-city can now boast of one of the best equipped hospital institutions in the state.

Through the benevolent spirit of Mrs. Julia Fremlet, of that city, who left $38,000 for the completion of additions to the hospital, Lancaster has been able to add these improvements.

Miss Coral Page, of Lancaster, is superintendent of the hospital and Miss Pearl Hine is instructor of student nurses.

With the new additions in which bed capacity has been doubled, 100 patients can be taken care of at once, in case of an emergency.

CHIEFS IN HUGE BANK MERGER

Walter W. Head (left), who was president of the Foreman Banks of Chicago, is shown here conferring with Melvin A. Traylor, president of the First National Bank of Chicago, which, with the First Union Trust & Savings Bank, acquired the Foreman Banks. The merged banks will have total resources of $883,000,000, making the new bank the second largest in Chicago.

FIRST OHIO WOMAN SENTENCED TO DEATH IN ELECTRIC CHAIR

Mrs. Maude Lowther, 23, Half-breed Indian Girl, To Die For Murder of Lover's Wife; Young Woman Who Laughs at Death May Go to Eternity With Tilby Smith, Ashtabula Gardner, For Whose Love She Committed Act.

JEFFERSON, O., June 10.—Attorney Frank L. Marvin files the new trial motion.

The Indian girl laughed aloud when the verdict was read in the courtroom, which was jammed with spectators. To some extent, the verdict fulfilled her own desire, expressed when the jurors retired to begin deliberations. At that time she said, "I would rather die than be sentenced to life imprisonment."

Possibility that the Indian girl may die with her erstwhile lover was seen today. Smith is under sentence to die at Ohio Penitentiary Aug. 17. He has a motion for a new trial pending with the district court of appeals.

If the woman's new trial is denied in common pleas court here, it was pointed out, her appeal to the appellate court probably would be ruled upon when that court decides on Smith's appeal. If both motions are denied, Maude and her lover probably will be executed on the same date.

The verdict came as the final smashing blow to the illicit love affair of the young truck driver and the Indian housemaid which started in a moving picture house and ended ten days later with Mrs.
Smith's murder as she sat in her husband's rickety dump truck holding her baby boy in the saying occurred.

CHILD KILLS HIS BROTHER

Quarrel Over Crackers Cause For Shooting; Boys Aged Six and Seven.

YORK Pa., June 10.—In an argument over a handful of crackers six-year-old William Trone today shot and killed his brother, Charles, 7, at their farm home near Spring Grove.

A third brother, George, Jr., 9 told a terror-stricken, incoherent story of the shooting. Charles, he said, was lying on a bed eating crackers when William entered the room the two engaged in a boyish quarrel over the crackers.

William George said, left the room, returned with a 12-gauge shotgun and fired at Charles.

The charge struck the boy in the face, killing him instantly. The right side of his head was ripped away by the shot.

OHIO VILLAGE IS SHAKEN BY METEOR TODAY

Northwestern Ohio Feels Effect of Tremor; Many Are Frightened

TRACES ARE FOUND

Slight Earthquake Is Be- lief of Some

TOLEDO, O., June 10.—With a force that shattered windows and frightened scores of persons from their sleep, an earth tremor, believed to have been caused by the fall of a huge meteor at Mal-inta, O., near Napoleon, early today shook all northwestern Ohio.

Although no trace of the meteor could be found, a hole large enough for an automobile was found at Melinta on the edge of the village, indicating that a weight from the sky apparently had fallen with great force.

TREE TORN OUT

As additional evidence of the probable fall of a meteor, a large elm tree, situated on the bank of a ditch where the large earth cavity was found, was torn out by the roots and hurled to a point 150 feet away.

For several yards on the side of the hole in the earth, the ground was splattered with earth which had been blasted away.

Grass nearby was burned. Small rocks apparently in the path of the meteor were thrown about. A telephone pole was knocked down and wires for several yards were lowered to the ground.

NOISE IS GREAT

Noise of the crash awakened the entire village. The earth shook and at first it was believed that a huge dynamite charge had been set off somewhere nearby.

FINLAY, O., June 10.—The earth rumble, which aroused scores of frightened persons here this morning, was probably a slight earthquake, authorities believed today.

The disturbance, it was said, lasted only a few moments. No damage or injuries were reported.

Two huge nitro-glycerin magazines are located near here, but no explosion was reported at either, authorities said.

Persons aroused from their sleep by the "quake" said the earth seemed to tremble and that windows could be heard to rattle from the force of the rumbling.

Lem Rice Falls Off 10-Foot Embankment on Adelphi- Pk; Is In Hospital.

and alighted on a rock on the road.

Dr. C. E. Bowers where was X-rayed, then taken to hart ambulance. The extent of his injuries has not been completely determined.

He was chopping a limb from a tree and was standing on the edge of the embankment when the bank slipped.

CLERK ADMITS HUGE SWINDLE

Robbed Detroit Welfare De- partment of $207,000 In Two Months' Time.

DETROIT, June 10.—City authorities today were pursuing ruthless inquiries into antiquated methods of control over public funds under orders to "spare no one and let the ax fall where it may," in an effort to get at the bottom of the most colossal swindle in the history of Detroit's government.

The investigations were prompted by the signed confession of Alex.
F. Lewis, 32-year-old clerk, who robbed the welfare department of $207,000 in two months by forging grocery certificates and converting the proceeds to his own account.

Within two weeks Lewis would have received an additional $80,000 in vouchers had his bank not instituted an investigation into his sudden accumulation of wealth.

Mayor Frank Murphy at whose behest the thorough check-up of financial methods is being made said more than $120,000 of the stolen funds would be returned to the city.

INTANGIBLE BILL PASSED

VOTE 86 - 36

Measure is Regarded As Keystone of State's Taxation Problem

MOTOR BILL IS NEXT

Collections Would Start In June 1931

COLUMBUS, O., June 10.—Success of the state legislature's taxation program seemed virtually assured today following the endorsement by an overwhelming majority in the house of representatives last night of the intangible tax bill.

The measure, which is regarded as the keystone of the taxation problem, has already passed the senate. It was returned to the upper branch today, however, to receive concurrence in a number of relatively minor house amendments before being sent to Governor George White.

The motor vehicle tax bill—the companion measure of the intangible tax bill—is scheduled to be brought out on the floor of the house today.

eral assembly, voted against house Thursday afternoon, in speculative political observers expressed belief that it will receive approval. This measure has passed the senate.

"EASY SAILING"

With the motor vehicle and the intangible tax bills out of the way, legislative leaders expressed confidence today that the remainder of the taxation program will find "easy sailing" and will enable the legislators to adjourn sine die about the middle of next week.

The vote last night on the in-tangible tax measure was 86 to 36, five representatives failing to vote. The senate approved the bill last May 27 by a vote of 23 to 5.

Although some amendments, designed to clarify and otherwise improve the bill were accepted, the house rejected numerous proposed amendments and stood adamant in its determination not to alter the basic rates or other major provisions incorporated when the bill was originally drafted by the special joint taxation committee.

If approved by the governor, the intangible tax bill will become operative as a law at the close of the current year. Tax collections, provided by it will start next June and supporters of the measure estimate that it will yield approximately $27,000,000 a year in revenue.

Household goods and automobiles are exempted from taxation by the intangible tax measure.
Both tangible and intangible personal property is taken off the general tax duplicate and much lower rates for intangibles are set up in lieu of taxing them at the uniform rate which averages 22.5 mills.

Plans Set For Golden Gloves Contests Here

Biff, bam!

A real slamjamboree is in store for fight fans who crave real red-blooded battling. Final arrangements are being made to place before Circleville and county fight fans one of the finest sport carnivals to ever be staged in Pickaway-co—a Golden Gloves tournament, in which only amateurs will take part. The show will be staged at Everts arena Thursday and Friday.

A considerable number of entries for the tournament have been received in the past few days. The promoters are expecting several more entrants today, and several more Thursday. Negotiations are under way to obtain the services of a well known Ohio fight figure to referee the final bouts Friday evening.

Ticket sales have been moving along quite well.

It is requested that all Golden Glove entrants appear at the arena between 6:30 and 7:30 p. m. Wednesday to weigh in.

A change in the price of admission has been made. Instead of charging 50 cents for Thursday and 75 cents for the finals Friday, 50 cents will be the admission each evening. Women and children will be admitted for 25 cents.

This project is the first that has ever been attempted here and if this one is as successful as others held in Ohio, especially at Cleveland, it will be a real thing for the community. Several youths who have won honors in Cleveland tournaments have gone on to make names for themselves in the cauliflower game.

Tickets are on sale at the Mecca restaurant, the Palace, the Gordon Auto Supply Co., Ryan and Merri-man barber shop, Millions barber shop and the Hall & Gleadell drug store.

Grocers Tangle With Oil Outfit

One of the best games of the recreation ball season should ensue this evening at Utilities field when the Independent Grocers and the Circleville Oils tangle in a battle for first place. The Grocers hold two victories over the Oils.

The contest Tuesday evening turned out to be a rout after the Red Men had played tight ball through the greater part of the game. The Grocers won 10-2, scoring four runs in the first frame and five in the ninth. Poor base-running on the part of the Indians kept their score to a minimum although Eddie Watson pitched the best game of ball he has tossed this season. He granted only three hits, two of them going to Strawser, and fanned six batters.

His control was fairly good, three men scampering to first base by virtue of the frank system.

With two out in the first inning the Grocers proceeded to drop the ball over the infield for enough hits to count four tallies. The Red Men came back in the third with two runs and should have had a couple more in the fourth when two men tried to steal second base, one with no one out and the other with only one man out. A neat hit by Strawser followed the second putout and what might have happened will never be known.

The Red Men were blanked from there on with the Grocers counting once in the seventh, then hopping on 'Longfellow' Smith for enough hits in the final frame to count five markers.

Dutch, Grocer third-sacker, was the only man on either team to hit safely three times, while four of his mates had two singles.

Merriman and Miller were the umpires.

Senators Annex Ninth Straight

NEW YORK, June 10.—Living next door to the mayor or being the husband of a screen star is a pretty sad business, for no matter how many great things you accomplish, reflected glory puts you in the sidishow class.

That's the role of the Washington Senators.

They are just good enough to be runners-up to the champion Athletics and the world of baseball won't fully appreciate them unless they pass the A's and lead the American League.

Day after day the Senators keep pace with the champions but all the floral horseshoes are trotted out for the Philadelphians and a crumb here and there must suffice for a team just a little bit down under.

Washington continued today to show its class with a record of a clean sweep of the series with the Chicago White Sox. They drove back the Alabasters for the fourth time in a row and won their ninth straight contest to the melody of 9 to 3. Crowder gave the Sox 14 hits against 10 permitted by Pat Caraway but loose fielding by the Chicagoans and tightness of Crowder with men on base told the story.

New York moved back into undisputed possession of second place in the National circuit by blowing up the Chicago Cubs, 10 to 2. Willard Morrell, a somewhat obscure right-handed hurler, yielded only eight safeties, while three Chicago pitchers handed, out 18. Ott got a homer and three other blasts and Terry socked two triples and two less important blows.

Even Manager Bucky Harris playing second could not save the sliding Detroit Bengals and they were tripped again, 12 to 3, by the A's. George Earnshaw was good for only six hits and knocked a homer in his own behalf.

Eighteen hits off almost as many Brooklyn pitchers enabled St. Louis to lower away the Robins again, 8 to 5. Frisch led the club swingers with four blasts the Robins could not stop. Luque, Brooklyn pitcher, was chased out of the game in the third inning for teasing the umpire, a Mr. Donnelly.

The Cincy Reds, so good that they astounded by staying in the cellar, surprised by beating Boston, 7 to 2, thanks to Benny Frey's five-hit pitching. The win was three in four for the Reds over the Braves.

Two good men from Philadelphia were out, two men were on base and the Phils trailed Pittsburgh one run when Chuck Klein stroled to bat in the fifth inning. Well, what happened? He poled his 14th four-baser of the season and eventually the Phillies wrapped it up, 7 to 3.

About the only thing between racketeering and respectability is Al Capone's failure so far to break into the success story magazine.

ALP, IRISHMAN MEET TONIGHT

NEW YORK, June 10.—Voicing of a minority but educated opinion that Primo Carnera will be punched into the pugilistic graveyard at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn tonight by Pat Redmond, the unknown soldier from Ireland, has added a last-minute spice to the 1931-unveiling of the Italian giant.

A couple of weeks ago when Redmond was substituted for Jack Sharkey as Primo's opponent, the farmerblacksmith-fighter was hailed as the choicest sort of a set-up for the Italian. It was pointed out that Pat, who weighs 250 pounds and stands 6 feet 4 1-2 inches was nothing more than a novice who had been fighting against third and fourth-raters at a small club. One and all agreed that Carnera would murder him, despite the Irishman's bulk and advantage of an inch and a half in reach.

During the past twenty-four hours, however, there has been a marked change in sentiment among boxing managers, match-makers and sports writers. Last night three out of four scribblers, who have been watching Redmond work out in the gym, came out at a fanning bee with the prediction that Pat would win the night.

It was recalled that Pat had broken two of Richardo Betta-zola's ribs in a bout at Providence, and that old Jack Ransault, who still can hit, had planted several sizzling rights flush on Pat's chin only to see the Irishman come back for more. Incidentally, Bettazolla, who has fought both Primo and Pat, is picking Redmond to win.

MAKES IT EASY FOR YOU TO OWN A McCORMICK-DEERING HARVESTER-THRESHER

Under This New Plan Every Responsible Grain Grower Can Pay for His McCormick-Deering Out of a Part of the Savings His Combine Will Make

CROP production cost figures compiled by McCormick-Deering Harvester-Thresher users show savings in harvesting and threshing costs of 20 cents or more per bushel when compared with government average costs for farms with similar yields.

We are so confident that thousands of additional grain growers can make proportionate savings with a McCormick-Deering Harvester-Thresher that we are announcing the McCORMICK-DEERING HARVESTER-THRESHER SAVINGS INVESTMENT PLAN, under which you or any other responsible grain grower can purchase a combine now and meet the first payment after harvest with just a part of the savings made possible by the new machine—with two more years to pay the balance.

Keep in mind that under this plan you get a time-tried and time-tested combine backed by 18 years of field experience with harvester-threshers. It is sold to you by a well-established McCormick-Deering dealer in your own community, whose stocks and service are supplemented by this large, permanently established International Harvester branch house right here in your own section.

Claims Federal Relief Is Failure

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Declaring the federal farm board's agricultural relief efforts have failed, Rep. Gilbert Haugen (R) of Iowa, chairman of the house committee on agriculture, today said the board will be expected to come before Congress with a new relief plan.

The pronouncement of the veteran house leader in farm relief legislation, made during a flying visit to Washington, forecast a revival of legislative warfare over aid to the farmer, when Congress convenes in December.

The federal farm board, however, was not saddled with blame by Haugen. The $500,000,000 farm relief act passed in the special session called by President Hoover was foredoomed, he declared.

Haugen said:

"The board was given no specific plan as provided in previous bills. It was up to the board to work out a plan. In the absence of specific authority to apply the equalization plan it was beyond the power of the board to voluntarily organize so as to control the whole production, which is essential in making the tariff effective."

"The board, in pegging the price of wheat, has been helpful to farmers to the extent of 20 cents a bushel, unfortunately at the expense of the federal treasury. Had Congress adopted the equalization plan, producers would have benefited more without expense to the treasury."

"Now that the board has withdrawn from the market, it is evident that it is impossible to effect a workable plan and will come back to Congress and suggest that it be given a more specific plan. It is up to the board to report and suggest."

Haugen, co-author of the vetoed McNary-Haugen equalization fee plan, under which the farmers would have been assessed to pay the cost of marketing surplus crops abroad at a lower price than

Wake Up Your Liver Bile —Without Calomel

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas blows up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes these good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up."

They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute.

Satin smoothness certified by Torsiographic tests

Studebaker's Dictator Eight engine gets almost perfect score for "rounded" performance. Nothing in its price class equals The Dictator's even power flow

"EYESIGHT evidence" of remarkable smoothness now verifies the enthusiastic claims of thousands of Dictator Eight owners. The unerring stylus of the Torsiograph reveals an absence of vibration in The Dictator's 81-horsepower engine which is unique in a car of The Dictator's low price.

Here indeed is "rounded" performance! Rounded not only figuratively, as shown by the Torsiographic record, but rounded as well in every function that makes motoring a pleasure and an economy.

There is no mystery in the source of The Dictator's smoothness. A sturdy, nine-bearing crankshaft, balanced not only statically but dynamically, is at the heart of it. What little vibration may survive, is further minimized by a crankshaft vibration damper of remarkable efficiency.

That is but the beginning. Combustion, or firing, is made steady and even by the use of a dual carburetor and gas passage, which assures equal fuel being fed to each cylinder, without "starving" the extreme end cylinders.

Full-power exhaust muffling, which conserves horsepower, and carburetor silencing—both introduced by Studebaker—combine to give The Dictator engine quiet to match its smoothness.

Finally, Free Wheeling brings to The Dictator its restful travel-ease. Clutch-pushing is almost forgotten. Gears shift noiselessly at any speed. Momentum is put to work, carrying you 10,000 miles for 8,000 miles of engine effort. Gasoline and oil consumption is cut 15% to 20%. Safety is enhanced. Enjoyment is multiplied.

Today—come drive The Dictator, the Eight with "rounded" performance. Enjoy luxury without luxury's usual tariff. Take the wheel of The Dictator and convince yourself.

"Rounded" Performance

The Torsiograph, one of the most nearly perfect of automotive laboratory instruments, records accurately the vibration of any rotating shaft. The record chart approaches a true circle, the more perfectly the balance of the crankshaft. Above shows the Torsiographic records of The Dictator Eight nine (9) bearing crankshaft and those of two other engines of double The Dictator's price. Notice the smooth roundness of The Dictator graph contrasted with the irregularity, or "humpiness" of the other two.

Lindy Plans a New Hop WHILE his more prosaic countrymen are planning an exciting vacation at the seashore, or in the mountains, or motor-touring two or three states, Colonel Lindbergh maps for himself and his wife a little air jaunt across the Pacific and over the better part of Asia. A vacation trip to him is longer than a life-time of traveling for most persons.

Aviation has made the "Lone Eagle" oblivious to distance and natural obstacles such as high mountains and oceans. Having spanned the Atlantic and traversed the jungles of Latin America, a hop from the United States to Alaska, and then across into Siberia and down into China and Japan probably seems devoid of danger to him.

The Lindberghs will go on no official mission, yet Washington fully believes they will inadvertently and unintentionally accomplish something of great worth to the country, something diplomats with a trunk of credentials might never accomplish. This is the furthering of mutual good will and trade between the United States and the Far East.

When Colonel Lindbergh spanned the Atlantic and was feted by France as the conquering hero of the century, much of the envy-born bitterness of war-torn and bankrupt France for the more prosperous Americans vanished over night.
Moreover, his feat and visit seemed to stimulate business between the two countries. And when he flew to Central and South America he accomplished the same things for Pan-America. Small wonder that the state department lost no time in providing the Lindberghs with the necessary traveling papers.

Stimson's Tour
SECRETARY of State Stimson's plan to spend his vacation in Europe is not without precedent and meets with public approval and the dictates of good foreign policy.
His two immediate predecessors went to Europe while in office.
Secretary Kellogg in 1928 went to Paris to affix his signature to the Pact of Paris, the international covenant outlawing war, and to officially visit President Cosgrave in Dublin. It was a fortunate visit.
In the summer of 1924 Secretary Hughes went with the American Bar Association for a professional rather than a diplomatic tour of Europe, but before his return he had discussed informally with representatives of several countries the important international questions of that day.
Secretary Stimson will visit England, France, Germany and Italy, carrying to those countries messages of good will from Washington and the hope of learning at first hand their viewpoints on world problems so that when they come up for formal discussion Washington can consider them with sympathy and understanding.
From the visiting American statesman the statesman of Europe will learn by word of mouth the general objective of American foreign policy.
Diplomats may think out loud together as they cannot think in international notes and parleys.

Renters Pay Taxes
NEW YORK landlords and real estate boards, by a simple ruse, hope to turn the wrath of the tenant voter upon governmental extravagance and to make the tenant tax conscious.
Henceforth, tenants will receive with their tax bills a note informing them that from 15 to 20 per cent of their rent is for the payment of city real estate taxes and that governmental economy and lower taxes will bring lower rents.
It is a well-established fact that the tenant, believing the landlord will pay the paper, goes in for many a dance of public extravagance and waste that he would oppose if the truth that it is the tenant's money is pointed out to him. In a desperate effort to

Gerry and Talbot clung to them

Faster Than Thought
And then Gerry's lithe body sprang forward like a stone slung from a sling shot. His shoulder slipped beneath the harness of the gun and struck the guard in the pit of the stomach.
The man grunted, staggered, and fell beneath the other's plunging body. He retained his hold on the gun barrel with his left hand, but his right hand had been torn away from the trigger in his fall. Gerry seized the trigger in his left hand and fired a shot at the guard's head. The guard's right arm shot out like a piston and seized the gun by the trigger guard.
Dave, leaping into the fray, clamped on the man's hand and kicked the gun out of his nerveless fingers. The guard's mouth opened in a powerful effort to expand as he drew a long breath to shout for help. Dave dropped on him, and his fingers into his throat and shut off the yell before it began. In a desperate effort to break free, the man flailed plane swooped to a landing. That night, Mueller sets fire to the plane. A fight ensues, and Joan rescues Dave from Mueller. Later, Dave's former fiancée, Barbara Holworthy, and his friends, Gerry Flemming and Talbot Henderson, visit him. Instant antagonism is aroused between Barbara and Joan. Mueller calls and orders Dave and the boys out of the country. Gerry identifies Mueller as snatch Cazzoni, a bootlegger.

Barbara tries to make up with Dave. Sally resents being called a gold-digger by Barbara. On the veranda, Dave is restrained from taking Sally into his arms by thoughts of Joan. The boys go to Mueller's, hoping to steal his plane to replace Dave's. They discover four planes in the hangar.
The boys are caught by Mueller's guard.

CHAPTER XVIII
"NEXT time you babies wanta hide out in the dark," said the guard, grinning through the moonlight from Talbot's rumpled pongee to Gerry's dirt-stained flannels, "you guys wear black suits. Might just as well hang a lantern on yourself as to wear what you got on. Come on, now, and we'll take a little walk over to Mueller's house."
"I don't want to walk," replied Talbot, mildly. "I'm all tired out now. I'm much too fat to walk.
I think I'll just sit down and rest." The guard stared at him in some perplexity. Never before had anyone talked to him like that while looking into the wrong end of a gun.

And then Gerry's lithe body
slung from a sling shot. His
shoulder slipped beneath the har-
guard in the pit of the stomach.
his right hand had been torn away
and fired a shot at the guard's
head. The guard's right arm shot out
like a piston and seized the gun by
the trigger guard.
Dave, leaping into the fray,
kicked the gun out of his nerve-
expand as he drew a long breath
throat and shut off the yell before it began. In a desperate effort to break free, the man flailed about with his arms and legs but Gerry and Talbot clung to them like a pair of terriers, hanging on grimly while Dave's strong fingers probed deeper and deeper into his windpipe.

We Should Slow Down and Enjoy Longer Life Modern Mode of Living—Overeating, Too Little Exercise and Strain—Is Affecting Health of Americans, Says Authority
By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.
United States Senator from New York.

WITHIN the past decade, statistics show an increasing mortality rate in the United States for persons of the age of forty and over. This is an unpleasant fact.
To what can we attribute this increase?
There is no doubt it is due to negligence on the part of individuals. This negligence has persisted in spite of warnings in youthful years. Even though certain ailments have been known to exist, their victims have neglected to visit their doctors at regular times.
Our modern mode of living tends to decrease the average span of life rather than to increase it. Overeating of rich, spicy foods, and foods rich in protein, such as meat, fish, fowl and eggs, contribute greatly to chronic disorders of the body. In temperate quantities these foods are most desirable, but their overeating is a great mistake.
As a rule, most people indulge too little in exercise. The automobile has taken away what little exercise the average individual might practice. Telephones and other modern inventions have curtailed man's physical activity. He has become an efficient machine at a sacrifice to his body.
It has been said of the American people that they are over stimulated and excessively emotional. Continued emotional excitement, with prolonged mental strain, does more dan-age to the human mechanism than many infectious diseases.
Hard work to the point of extreme fatigue, interfering with or-mal sleep, does great damage to the body. Lack of proper food and ample relaxation are causes of many unnecessary ailments. Too much work with too little play has long been recognized as a hindrance to good health.
The need of taking occasional inventory of one's health is imperative.
Once the body has been damaged, all that medical science can offer is to prevent its further damage.
It is possible, however, to prevent many serious disorders of the body.
Proper diet and correct exercise will usually alleviate this trouble. For other information send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.
A.—This is a progressive weakness of various muscles and is an obstinate chronic disease. For other information send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.
MISS R. D. Q.—What causes white spots underneath the fingernails?
A.—These spots are usually due to injury to the base of the nail and grow out with the nail itself. They may be caused by improper handling of manicuring instruments, or they may be caused by a blow or some similar injury.
W. K. Q.—What causes low blood pressure?
A.—How can I reduce?
A.—This is a condition usually found accompanying such diseases as infection, fever, anemia, diabetes, shock, general debility and auto-intoxication.
2.—Weight reduction is merely a matter of self-control as regards diet.
For further particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

"LOVED TILBY IS INDIAN GIRL PLEA
JEFFERSON, O., June 9.—"Because I loved Tilby Smith." Thus did Maude Lowther, 23-year-old part-Indian girl, who is fighting off the shadow of Ohio's electric chair, explain to a jury of 12 men why she shot and killed Mrs. Clara Smith, wife of her former lover during a fake holdup, May 29, 1929.
Back on the stand today as the long witness in her own defense, Mrs. Lowther was to complete the defense testimony in her first degree murder trial for Mrs. Smith's slaying, before closing arguments were started by state and defense.
It was believed the jury may receive the case before nightfall.

Your limbs, arms and fingers will no longer feel cold and "go to sleep" because Baalman's Gas Tablets prevent gas from interfering with the circulation. TRICKS of MAGIC EXPLAINED by Will L. Lindhorst

TO LIGHT CANDLE WITHOUT TOUCHING FLAME TO IT

APPLY MATCH TO SMOKE. FLAME WILL RUN DOWN SMOKE AND LIGHT CANDLE

WICK MUST BE CHARRED

Light a candle, let it burn until the wick is charred, blow it out with a sudden puff and a wreath of smoke will curl upward from the wick. Apply a match to this smoke a few inches above the candle and the flame will run down the smoke, lighting the candle. This is explained by a gas in the smoke being ignited by the match. It is necessary to keep the candle away from any draft while performing this trick.
